

Fueled by a fundamental belief that having access to financial services creates opportunity, PayPal (NASDAQ: PYPL) is committed to democratizing financial services and empowering people and businesses to join and thrive in the global economy. Our open digital payments platform gives PayPal's 277 million active account holders the confidence to connect and transact in new and powerful ways, whether they are online, on a mobile device, in an app, or in person. Through a combination of technological innovation and strategic partnerships, PayPal creates better ways to manage and move money, and offers choice and flexibility when sending payments, paying or getting paid. Available in more than 200 markets around the world, the PayPal platform, including Braintree, Venmo and Xoom, enables consumers and merchants to receive money in more than 100 currencies, withdraw funds in 56 currencies and hold balances in their PayPal accounts in 25 currencies

Legal Intern – PayPal EMEA Litigation Team

Are you looking for your next legal internship? PayPal is a leading online payment company and our team is at the forefront of resolving cross-jurisdictional technology disputes. We welcome applications from candidates who have a master's in law or have gained their First State Exam in Germany. We are particularly interested in candidates who are passionate about solving legal problems related to technology, who thrive within a global environment and are excellent communicators.

PayPal Intern Programme:

- Assist with court proceedings and handling commercial and civil matters in Europe, Middle East and Africa
- Work closely and collaborate with specialist finance and technology teams to establish factual statements to support court proceedings
- Contribute to the crafting of effective litigation strategies and support external counsel with drafting written submissions
- Be a detective! Conduct research on topical and emerging legal issues related to payment transactions, banking law and e-commerce
- Draft memoranda of advice in English (and German/French if applicable) incl. procedural and factual overviews

You'll need to demonstrate:

- Excellent academic records (master's degree or First State Exam in Germany)
- Excellent communication skills and a positive mindset
- Highly autonomous and result-oriented
- Fluent in English and, ideally, proficient in German and/or French or other European languages
- Computer literate and good command of MS-Office
- Strong analytical skills and the ability to work in a structured and methodical manner

Benefits for you:

- An exciting, international opportunity to work within a well-established innovative tech company
- You will be mentored by experienced lawyers and interact with business individuals in a professional dynamic team, that lacks no sense of humor and helps shape the payment landscape in Europe, Africa, and the Middle East
- Future career opportunities with international exposure via PayPal's extensive network of global locations
